

Courage is contagious!

TM
dare to lead

District and School Leaders

Based on the research of Dr. Brené Brown, Dare to Lead™ is an empirically based courage-building program designed to strength a leader's skill sets around:

- Rumbling with Vulnerability
- Living into Our Values
- BRAVING Trust
- Learning to Rise

Earn the status of Dare to Lead Trained. This credential provides the opportunity for district and school leaders to share the work of daring leadership with their school community as Daring Teams Coordinators. Under the guidance and coaching of our Certified Dare to Lead Facilitator, educational leaders can build the capacity of their teams to operationalize behaviors that promote courageous conversations and protocols.

Registration is now open for both in-person or virtual training options.

In-Person: June 20, 21, and 22 (8:30 am - 4:00 pm)

Six-Week Virtual Option: June 16 - July 21

Cost: $695 (person) / $2,800 (Team of 5)

To register: Seneca Highlands IU

For more information:
Shelby Johnson
(814) 887-5512 ext. 148
sjohnson@iu9.org

